AT THE TIME THE STUDENT STARTS STUDYING, WHAT WILL BE YOUR APPROXIMATE INCOME PER WEEK BEFORE TAX?

(By 'income' we mean money from any source, taxable or non-taxable – this could be wages or salary, child support, paid parental leave, interest from savings or investments, dividends from shares, income from a family trust, farm or business, maintenance payments, income from boarders or rent, superannuation, overseas benefits or pensions, weekly accident insurance payments, scholarships or any other source. Please don't count your Student Allowance, Student Loan or Family Tax Credit as part of income. Please use a new line for each separate employer.)

Please give us details of your income per week before tax. If you will be receiving no income whilst studying write NIL in boxes below.

Your Student Allowance is assessed based on the income you and your partner declared at the time of application. If your income changes at any time you must let us know straight away as it could affect you or your partner's payments. Student allowance payments for any week are affected by the income you both earn in that week. We may ask for evidence of your income at any time in the future. We may also check your income with Inland Revenue.

PARTNER'S OBLIGATIONS

When the student gets financial help from us you also have obligations to meet. If you don't meet them, your and/or the student's payments could stop – and in some cases you and/or the student could be prosecuted. Here are your obligations.

If things change

You must tell us straight away if you:

- Have a change in your work situation (such as starting part-time, casual or full-time work)
- Intend to travel overseas
- Have changes to your living situation, including:
  - Starting or ending a marriage, civil union or a de facto relationship, or a separation
  - A change in the number of children you support
- Have changes to your income in any week or changes to your financial circumstances
- Have changes to your personal details (such as name, address or bank account number)
- Become self employed or start to run a business
- Are imprisoned or held in custody on remand
- Are admitted to or discharged from hospital
- Have any other changes that may affect whether your partner can get a Student Allowance

Be honest with us

When you sign this form you are acknowledging that the information you give us is true and you have not left anything out. You understand that you and/or the student's payments may be reviewed and cancelled if you:

- Make a false statement or
- Don't answer all the questions fully or
- Don't tell us about changes in your circumstances that could affect your (and the student's) eligibility

If this happens, you understand that you and/or the student will have to pay back the total amount of any overpayment plus collection costs, and you and/or the student may be prosecuted.

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR PRIVACY

Collecting your information

We collect your personal information so we can provide income support, NZ Super or Veteran's Pension, Student Allowance, or Loans and connect you with employment, education and housing services. We do this under various Act, which are all listed on our website at workandincome.govt.nz/privacy

- To help us do this, we collect information about your identity, your relevant history, and your eligibility for our services.
- We get this information directly from you, and we sometimes collect information about you from others, including other government agencies.
- You can choose not to give us your information, but we might not be able to help you if you don't.

Using your information

We use the information you give us to make decisions about the best way to help you.

- These decisions may be about:
  - whether you're eligible for our services
  - running our operations and ensuring our services are effective
  - the services we'll provide in the future.

Sharing your information

Sometimes, we need to share your information outside our Ministry to reach our goal of helping New Zealanders to be safe, strong, and independent.

- To do this we may share your information with:
  - prospective employers to help you find work
  - contracted service providers that help us to help you
  - health providers if we need your medical information to assess your eligibility
  - other government agencies when we have an agreement with them
  - some other governments if you may be eligible to get or are getting an overseas pension
- We also share personal information when the law says we have to.

Respecting you and your information

We make sure we follow the Privacy Act to do what's right when we use your information.

- We treat you and your information with respect, by acting responsibly and being ethical.
- We make sure any technology we use meets strict security standards so it keeps your information safe.

Get in touch if you have a question

You have a right to ask to see your personal information, and to ask for it to be corrected if it's wrong.

- If you have a question or a complaint, please get in touch.
- You can find full details about what we do with personal information in our privacy notice at: workandincome.govt.nz/privacy

Declaration Please sign here

The information I have provided and the pre-printed information is true and I have not left anything out. I understand that I may be asked to provide further evidence to support the income details I have given and that I could be prosecuted if I make a false statement.
